

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

1
Ag84Pro
Cop. 2

#1119

the United States?

Preflight Inspection Information

All baggage of travelers going from Bermuda to the United States is subject to preflight inspection at the airport.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture restricts the entry of certain fruits, vegetables, plants, meats, and other agricultural items from Bermuda. Plant and animal pests and diseases may be on (or in) these souvenir items.

What can you bring to the United States? Listed on the back of this flyer is the quarantine status of some common souvenir items you may find in Bermuda. For additional information, call or write:

Inspector, U.S. Department of Agriculture
APHIS, PPQ
Box 3041
N.A.S., Bermuda

Telephone: 3-2752

AUG 25 '76

Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service
Plant Protection and Quarantine Programs
U.S. Department of Agriculture

Program Aid No. 1119
Issued August 1975

Please report all agricultural items in your possession to the U.S. inspector at the airport.

Bamboo—dried canes and leaves: admitted; other parts: prohibited.

Bulbs—admitted.

Cactus leaves—for food or medicinal purposes: admitted; cactus plants: see Plants, below.

Coconuts—without husks: admitted except into Florida; with husks: admitted except into Hawaii and Florida.

Eggs.¹

Fish—admitted.

Flowers—fresh cut or dried: generally admitted; camellia, gardenia, cape jasmine, rhododendron, azalea, rose, and lilac.¹

Fruits, herbs, and vegetables (fresh)—asparagus, banana, cassava, chive, garlic, ginger root, lime (sour), onion, palm heart, potato, strawberry, tomato, and watercress: admitted; beet, broccoli, brussels sprouts, cabbage, carrot, cauliflower, celery, chervil, chicory, cucumber, endive, fennel, kale, lettuce, mint, mustard greens, parsley, parsnip, pea (shelled), pumpkin, radish, rhubarb, rutabaga, sage, salsify, sorrel, spinach, squash, swiss chard, tarragon, thyme, and turnip: admitted into Washington, D.C. and ports north thereof.

Greenery—asparagus plumes and fern fronds: admitted.

Meats and meat products—permitted only with certification.¹

Pet birds.¹

Plants and cuttings—without soil;¹ with soil: prohibited.

Poultry (dressed) and poultry meat—uncooked: prohibited; thoroughly cooked: permitted only with certification or proof of origin.¹

Seeds—dried: generally admitted; bamboo, cotton, and rice: prohibited. Seeds in moist and fleshy pulp: prohibited.

¹ Contact the Inspector, U.S. Department of Agriculture, well in advance of departure (see over for address).